

East Africa School of Reconciliation for Peace Practitioners June 5th - 19th, 2023, Nakuru, Kenya.

MEET THE FACILITATORS

Dr. Joseph Nyamutera

Is a pastor in Rwanda, He lived through the Heat of the genocide. Today he serves as a pastor and the director of Rabagirana Ministries, Kigali. He is also the Head of Reconciliation at the HHTN Global.

Ms. Szabina Sztojka

She is a Roma pastor holding advanced degrees in theology from the USA & Hungary, and is currently serving in an international church in Budapest, Hungary. She completed the 2018 international school of Reconciliation in Rwanda.

Mrs. Nancy Ndungu

She is a trained community development worker and a Pastor's wife in Kenya. She has served alongside her husband in church for over 20 years. She was a victim of the 2007/2008 post-election violence and has benefited a lot in the HHTN workshops.

Dr. Allan Waihumbu

He is church worker with the Anglican church of Kenya, serving in the worship ministry. Before joining the reconciliation Ministry, he served in the pastoralist missionary area as a veterinary Doctor. He was a victim of the 2007/2008 post-election violence in Kenya. He is currently the Executive Director of Way of Peace, with vast experience in training and facilitation on reconciliation.

Jecinta Muigai Barasa, Ph.D

Is a lecturer at Africa International University, she holds a Ph.D. in Education and serves in children's ministry in her church as well H.H.T.N in Way of Peace, after she completed the 2018 international school of Reconciliation in Rwanda.

Mrs. Joyce Sheri

She is a trained anthropologist, a pastor's wife who has served the Church alongside her husband for many years. She is currently involved in Healing and Reconciliation work in Kenya through Way of Peace (WAPE). This is a task she has undertaken since 2008 after receiving healing from the aftermath of the post elections violence in Kenya; which almost tore apart her inter-tribal family.

Rev. George de Vuyst is a pastor in the Christian Reformed Church in North America. He has been serving with Resonate Global Mission in Ukraine since 1998. After attending ISOR 2015 in Rwanda, he took what he learned back to Ukraine and developed the Eurasian School of Reconciliation. Currently he and his family have relocated to North America due to the Russian invasion of Ukraine, and he is developing HHTN around the USA and Canada.

WAPE in partnership with Rabagirana, Le Rucher, HHTN Global, and World Renew Kenya welcomes you to this unique experience. This training will help you receive inner healing and equip you to be an agent of healing in the ailing institutions of family, workplace, church, communities, and nations marred by an unending cycle of conflicts. You will also have an opportunity to share your experiences and also hear the experiences and struggles of others in the healing journey. You will have an opportunity to join hundreds of other reconciliation workers spread throughout the globe.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND?

We are looking for people who feel called by God into a ministry of reconciliation. We desire to invest in those who have a role and position to impact their community and church and have been sent by their leaders. Reference from your leader will be required as part of the application process. We expect participants to have a minimum of high school level of education to be able to cope with the demands of the course. They should also be familiar with the Bible and be fluent in English. Our priority is for nations or communities that have experienced violence or strong divisions of ethnic or social nature. (Those working in peacebuilding, leadership, or community development programs are encouraged to apply).
